PRESIDENTS REPORT

Hi all, this last month we have had some successes, and some losses, once again I thank those who travelled to other clubs, and to those who entered events at our club.

I would like to thank everyone who helped out on the men's Classic Pairs day, everyone who set the greens up each day, who worked in the kitchen. Everyone I spoke to and comments I heard, only had praise for the meals and the way they were presented. To the match committee, Terry Bruhn and John Kentish it was a great effort to have representatives from 23 different clubs and to fill all three greens. That took a lot of time and work so congratulations for a job well done.

Surveys have been given to all members, and need to be returned to the club before the middle of March, with comments, suggestions, or notices of motions that you would like to forwarded to the AGM of the LSEBA. Our AGM will be within the next 6 weeks (to be decided at the board meeting on the 25-02-13, we will need notices of motion that you would like to present to that meeting as soon as possible. One of the problems that we have to solve at the AGM will be the position of Secretary, at this stage no one has put their hand up, and if no one does, then the members will have to decide if they are willing to run the next year without a Secretary (I have no idea what that would mean, not good I think). Once again I would like to thank everyone who helps around the club, inside or outside, without your support things would not run as smoothly as they do, once again thank for all you do.

Terry Seiler

THEY WALK AMONG US!

I couldn't find my luggage at the airport baggage area and went to the lost luggage office and reported the loss. The woman there smiled and told me not to worry because she was a trained professional and said I was in good hands. 'Now,' she asked me, 'Has your plane arrived yet?'

While working at a pizza parlour I observed a man ordering a small pizza to go. He appeared to be alone and the cook asked him if he would like it cut into 4 pieces or 6. He thought about it for some time then said 'Just cut it into 4 pieces; I don't think I'm hungry enough to eat 6 pieces.'

A man was driving when he saw the flash of a traffic camera. He figured that his picture had been taken for exceeding the limit, even though he knew that he was not speeding. Just to be sure, he went around the block and passed the same spot, driving even more slowly, but again the camera flashed. Now he began to think that this was quite funny, so he drove even slower as he passed the area again, but the traffic camera again flashed. He tried a fourth time with the same result. He did this a fifth time and was now laughing when the camera flashed as he rolled past, this time at a snail's pace. Two weeks later, he got five tickets in the mail for driving without a seat belt.

Some guy bought a new fridge for his house. To get rid of his old fridge, he put it in his front yard and hung a sign on it saying: 'Free to good home. You want it, you take it.' For three days the fridge sat there without anyone looking twice. He eventually decided that people were too mistrustful of this deal. So he changed the sign to read: 'Fridge for sale $50.' The next day someone stole it!

STICKY DATE PUDDING

175g (6 oz) pitted dates, chopped
1 teaspoon bicarbonate of soda
60 g (2 oz) butter, softened
¼ cup caster sugar
2 eggs, lightly beaten
1 ½ cups SR Flour
½ teaspoon vanilla essence

SAUCE

125g (4 oz) butter, cubed
¾ cup lightly packed brown sugar
200ml cream

Preheat oven to 180o C. Grease an 18cm (7") square cake tin and line with baking paper. (I use muffin tins for individual puddings, as they present well at the table, they also freeze well).

Place dates in a bowl, add Carb soda and pour over 300ml of boiling water, set aside.

Beat the softened butter and caster sugar until pale and fluffy. Add beaten eggs, a bit at a time, beating well after each addition. Sift in the flour. Add the dates and their juice, then the vanilla and mix well. This will be a wet mixture.

Pour into the prepared tin and bake for 30-40 minutes, or until risen and firm to touch.

Meanwhile, make the sauce by placing the butter, brown sugar and cream in a small saucepan. Bring to the boil and simmer for 5 minutes.

Cut the pudding into squares and serve topped with the sauce, plus cream or ice cream.

Serves 6-8.

(This recipe works well every time and everyone enjoys them, Lyn.)
